R. I. ASKED TO LEGISLATE.

Against Strike of Engineers and Firemen on New Haven.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 6.—Governor Pothier is asked to call a special session of the legislature, if necessary, to make laws to insure the protection of the people of Rhode Island from the consequences of a strike by the firemen and engineers of the New Haven road, in resolution adopted by the directors of the Board of Trade, to act upon which a special meeting of the full board has been called for to-morrow.

The resolution calls upon the governor to "prohibit employees of public service corporations from jeopardizing the lives and property of the public by such action as they now threaten."

NO SKIN OFF REED'S KNUCKLES.

Senator Shows Them, but Won't Say He Hit McIntyre.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Senator Reed of Missouri smiled grimly Saturday when the subject of his encounter with John McIntyre, a member of the National Association of Manufacturers and of the typographic union of Philadelphia was broached. "I'm a man of peaceful disposition," he said. "Whether I hit him or not is a matter of small concern, but you see my knuckles are not skinned," and he displayed his hands.

Reed's grievance was that McIntyre had been spreading injurious rumors concerning his conduct as a member of the Senate committee investigating the Mulhall letters.

ONE KILLED AS CAR OVERTURNED.

One of Those Injured Likely to Die—Brakes Failed to Work.

Chicopee, Mass., Oct. 6.—One man was killed, another probably fatally hurt and 15 others were injured, two seriously, when an electric car of the Holyoke Street Railway company overturned in Aldenville, a part of Chicopee, Saturday.

The crew of the car stated that the brakes failed to work coming down a steep hill.

Rounding a curve at the foot of the declivity, the rear trucks jumped the track, throwing the car on its side.

The dead: PETHUNE, JOSEPH, Chicopee Falls.

Something New

for Barre

We respectfully announce that we have taken the distribution of

Brown's Quick-Fire

for this section of country. While this is a new product to many here in Vermont, it is in almost universal use in all sizeable places south and west of us, and we believe will be a welcome addition here. You will find it handy to use, always ready, always sure, quick, safe and the cheapest for kindling coal, coke or wood fires.

Ladies, you won't have to depend on the menfolk to keep you supplied or wield the axe when you discover you are out of kindling at critical times, any more; you can also avoid the use of kerosene with consequent danger to person and property. Keep a sack of our charcoal handy by; simply put some paper in stove, shake a layer of charcoal from sack, put on a little coal and light. Don't keep fire from day to day in kitchen range. You get vastly better results from new fire and now you only find it cheapest. Please try it. Only 15c per sack, or 2 for 35c.

GREATER VERMONT NOTES.

The Rutland county farm bureau has requested L. G. Dodge of the United States department of agriculture to recommend a man as agricultural adviser for Rutland county. The new adviser will be the sixth to be employed in Vermont, the other men being now at work in Bennington, Windham, Windsor, Orange and Caledonia counties. The Rutland county man will be the first in the state to be supported entirely by local funds, federal aid not being available at the present time.

The secretary of the Putney Board of Trade has received the sale price of the Stowall mill property, machinery and privileges. The Board of Trade will do all in their power to locate a manufacturing firm. The plant is suitable for any wood-working establishment. The sale price is very low.

The William H. Burns Co. of Worcester, Mass., one of the largest manufacturers of women's underwear in New England, has leased for a term of three years, with the privilege of renewal for two years, the factory of the Tree Manufacturing company in Waterbury. The factory was opened Oct. 1.

The Saxtons River Board of Trade has been successful in insuring the return to the village of the Stone Manufacturing company, which during the past few years has been located in Gardner, Mass. A building has been secured for the plant. It is expected that the property will be exempted from taxes for a term of years. The company manufactures whip sockets, handles, plugs for roll papers, etc. When in full operation, the plant will employ from 15 to 30 men.

In order to stimulate interest in good roads, the Bennington County Vermont Improvement association offers prizes to the pupils of the rural schools in the county. One prize of a dollar is offered in each school, which will be paid to the boy or girl contributing the best essay on good roads. An additional prize of $5 will be given the school submitting the best essay for the county. A prize of $10 will be awarded to the school which keeps the road for an eighth of a mile in front of the schoolhouse in the best condition. The school may vote to take charge of the road as a whole, or may vote to appoint a committee for that purpose. The prize may be used for any purpose that the school winning it may vote.

The tour of Burlington men through Chittenden, Franklin and Grand Isle counties under the auspices of the Burlington Merchants' association was very successful. It was a 100-mile trip of 33 men in 10 automobiles. The party inspected the new Winslow dam, the Smith and the Brigham farms and the plants of the Van Camp Packing company and the Willard Manufacturing company at St. Albans, the factory of the Robin Hood Ammunition company at Swanton, and the orchards of the Eastern Fruit & Nut Orchard company on Grand Isle. The Burlington men met citizens of St. Albans at the Owl club Thursday evening, September 25, and the next morning were introduced to the members of the Swanton Board of Trade at the Taquahunga club of Swanton. Friday afternoon at the orchards on Grand Isle the party was treated to the fruits of the farm in the form of watermelons, and baked apples and cream.

There are many building operations in Windsor. P. J. Putnam has commenced the construction of a business block on Main street. The Journal building is being remodeled by Maxwell Everts to make a home for the State National bank. Work in remodeling the Morrison building on Main street is to be undertaken shortly. The old plant of the Windsor Machine company is being remodeled to be used by the Windsor club as a working man's hotel, with accommodations for about 50 workmen. The Windsor associates are receiving bids for another block of five houses, while a number of individuals are putting up private homes.

That the Long Trail is beginning to be appreciated by mountain lovers from other states is indicated by the number of parties which have followed the trail during the month of September. A party of 10 from the Appalachian Club of Boston walked from Killington to Lincoln, and after taking autos to Waterbury, climbed Camel's Hump. A party of five from West Roxbury, Mass., followed the trail from Mansfield to Breadloaf. Other parties from Providence, R. I., Worcester, Mass., Marlboro, Mass., Stamford, Conn., and New York City covered parts of the 140 miles of the trail. There is an increasing interest among the people of Vermont in the Green Mountain club and its work. Twenty members who attended the annual meeting of the club at Brandon climbed Mount Moosilauke in June. There was a party of 40 on Camel's Hump on Labor day. Green Mountain day was celebrated by an excursion up Killington peak of a party of 50 made up of members of the Green Mountain club and their friends.

Frank Chance is now confident of his Highlander team and says that he is willing to meet the Giants in a five-game series in the spring. Chance has already decided upon his infield, but has not yet made up his mind who will permanently occupy positions in the outfield. Williams will play first base for him. Zeider will take second, Maist third and Becking fourth will lead the shortstop. Gilbooley, the Montreal recruit, is practically the only outfielder sure of his position. Sweeney, Gossett and Reynolds will be retained for catching, while a full quota of twirlers has been decided upon.

SPORTING NOTES.

Charles P. Rice of Uxbridge, Mass., the great rival of Howard Drew, the Springfield lad, entered the University of Maine. He will be a valuable addition to the Maine track team and should prove a prominent contender for sprinting honors in New England and other eastern colleges.

One of the big surprises of Saturday's football games was the outcome of the Dartmouth-Colby game. The week previous, Colby went to Providence and humiliated Brown with a 10 to 0 defeat. Colby was expected at least to make things interesting for Dartmouth, but the match proved to be a runaway affair.

Final arrangements have been made between Penn state and Harvard for the game to replace the Norwich game, which was cancelled because of the death of Vernon Belyea. Penn state should make an interesting game for the Crimson.

A surprise found in the results of Saturday's football games was the defeat of Holy Cross by Massachusetts Aggie. Boland, who played quarterback on the Lafayette college team three years ago, has been declared ineligible at Princeton.

Much interest is taken in football at Villanova this season. Already there have been four teams constantly drilling daily.

Tommy Connell, who played quarterback on the Yale football team last fall, has been shifted to halfback, where he is performing creditably.

The University of Washington baseball team is touring Japan at present, playing the most prominent Japanese college teams.

The major league baseball clubs in the East completed the present season Saturday, while the western clubs brought the season to a grand close Sunday.

F. C. Haggood, well known in Barre, is again officiating at football games this fall. Saturday he acted as referee of the Tufts-New Hampshire state game. Ralph Rose, the famous shot putter, is critically ill at his home at San Francisco with typhoid fever. Rose is the champion shot putter of the world.

The Boston clubs finished closely for positions in their various leagues. The Red Sox, last season champions of the world, were barely able to land in first division, ranking fourth in standing. The lovely Braves proved true to early spring predictions and moved up from the cellar to fifth position in the National league.

"Andy" Smith, the veteran coach known through his affiliations with Pennsylvania of late years, is now coaching at Purdue university at Lafayette, Ind. Smith was last season in charge of the Penn team, being succeeded by George Brooks.

Manager Jimmy Callahan of the Chicago White Sox is being hailed as the champion harpist. Callahan is said to have smoothed over the differences existing between Lord, Chase, O'Brien and Cicotte.

The St. Louis Browns have a long list of excellent pitchers at present, but badly need strengthening in other departments of the game. The Browns' list of pitching material is as follows: Leverage, Weiland, Hamilton, Schwenk, Baumgartner, Sane, Charlie Taylor and Roy Mitchell. Many persons are advising Manager Kieckeff to trade off some of the surplus pitching matter for men to bolster up the other positions on the team.

Clyde Engle, the husky infielder of the Boston Red Sox, will go to Cuba this winter to manage a team at Matanzas. He will probably take many players from the United States with him. The New York Highlanders have nothing to fear from unlucky signs. The New Yorkers have won four games this season on the 13th of the month.

Because of the fact that the Washington club has no right field hitters in its ranks, the management has moved the right field fence back a distance of 30 feet to put a stop to the home run hitting of visitors. In the past visiting teams have piled up numerous four-ply hits over this short fence.

Joe Tinker, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, is still the old scrapper of old. Tinker has received suspensions for two fights this season. The first occurred in June with Otto Knabe of the Phillies. His other altercation was recently with Maranville of the Boston Braves.

If Mothers Only Knew

How frequently children suffer from worms, they would take more precautions against this common ailment of childhood. Worms also have worms very frequently. WILSON SAVES JOBS TO JUDGES.

Senate Abolishes Commerce Court, but Retains Members.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The Senate in open session Saturday ratified the action taken Friday night in the committee of the whole in passing the deficiency appropriation bill abolishing the commerce court, but retaining the judges as circuit judges and subject to assignment by the chief justice for duty in the district court of appeals bench.

President Wilson decided the matter for several senators who were in doubt about it by telling them he would veto any bill that came to him legislating the judges out of office.

The president agreed with several senators that there was no constitutional authority in Congress to remove a federal judge from office except by impeachment.
